

Jesus said that God's house should be a . . .

Kidsword

John 2:13-22

Jesus was angry. The business people at the Temple were cheating worshipers by selling animals for sacrifice and changing money at unfair prices.

Find three each of these things in this picture (front and back): safe, piggy bank, dollar sign, bags of cash, mice.

GET OUT!
YOU HAVE MADE MY FATHER'S HOUSE INTO A DEN OF THIEVES!

SAM'S DISCOUNT
OFFERINGS

Bad Credit?
No Credit?
No Problem!

CHEAP
$HEEP!

We'll "bleat"
any price!

THE MONEY'S EXCHANGE

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

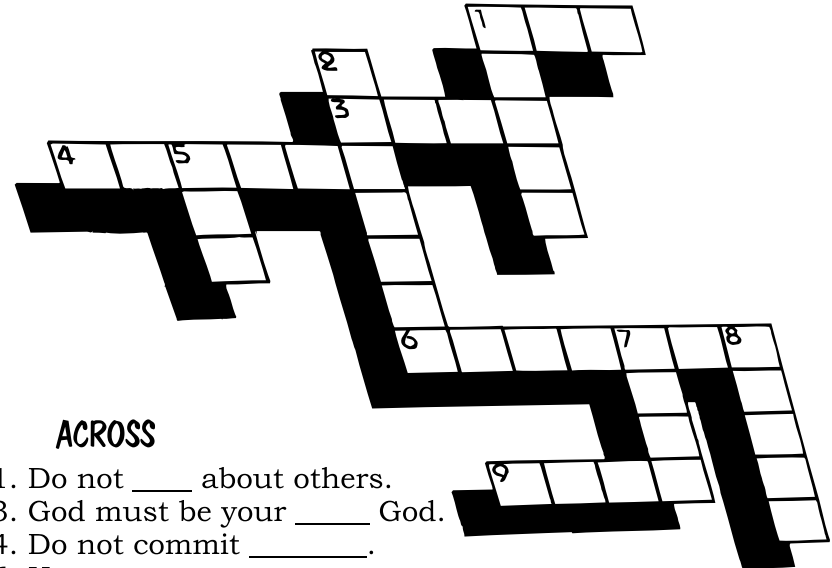

Do You Know the Ten Commandments?

Choose the real commandments from choices below. Mark "X" for real commandments, "G" for the ones that are good ideas but not commandments, and "S" for the ones that our goofy writer just made up. Read and explain your answers to a parent, teacher, or a friend.

1. Be nice to others. ___
2. Have no other gods but God. ___
3. Run faster than wild, angry carnivores. ___
4. Be faithful to your wife or husband. ___
5. Do not steal.
6. Do not talk to strangers. ___
7. You must not try things at home. ___
8. Don't make pictures of God and worship them. ___
9. Don't have a cow. ___
10. Love your country. ___
11. Honor your parents. ___
12. Do unto others then avoid the police. ___
13. Do not lie about other people.
14. Do not lust after the things others have. ___
15. Rest one day a week. ___
16. Do not point food at other people. ___
17. Keep your hands to yourself. ___
18. Do not commit murder. ___
19. Keep God's name holy. ___
20. If your food is talking to you, don't eat it. ___
21. Keep your body clean. ___
22. Do the kind of work you can be proud of. ___

The real commandments are 2, 4, 5, 8, 11, 13, 14, 15, 18 and 19.

The Ten Commandments are a great gift from God. They tell us how people act when they are guided by love; love for God, others, and self. They were given to help us live good, loving lives that honor our Creator.

ACROSS

1. Do not ___ about others.
3. God must be your ___ God.
4. Do not commit _____.
6. Honor your _____.
9. Do not think you must _____ what belongs to others.

DOWN

1. Be _____ to your wife or husband.
2. _____ only God.
5. You must _____ one day a week.
7. God's _____ is holy. Don't take it lightly.
8. Do not _____.

Use these words to complete the sentences and the crossword.

