1 Jesus finished speaking
And then set out to sea;
But we followed him along the coast,
As he left (Spain, Galilee, happily).
His miracles and teaching
Were so loving and so (great, long, loud),
We wanted to see more of him,
Though it was getting (old, crowd, late.)

2 When we reached the other shore,
We'd become a hungry (mob, chicken, crowd);
"How will we feed all these folks?"
I heard Jesus ask out (loud, there, side).

3 "This little boy will share his lunch:
Two fishes and some (fruit, bread, sauce),
Enough for us, but not the others,"
A hungry Philip (said, read, joked).

4 Jesus blessed the bread and fish,
Then gave everyone a (lunch, fork, share);
And each person had enough to eat,
All five thousand of us (there, bunch, where).

5 How do I know this happened?
Well, it's not some tale I was taught:
For my own mother baked that bread,
And those two fish, I caught.
