

God speaks in sunlight,
And the Bible, his word,
He might speak in thunder,
Or the song of a bird.

God wants you to listen
For the things you should know,
That will help you find wisdom,
And help you to grow.

*Make a prayer list!
Draw pictures of or write down three things you will pray about this week.*

Yes, God wants to speak to you,
But do you hear?
(If he speaks in a whisper, You'd better be near.)

Little Kidsword

Luke 18:1-8

God gives you good things;
God loves you so,
God gives you good things
And wants you to know . . .

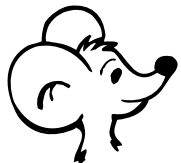

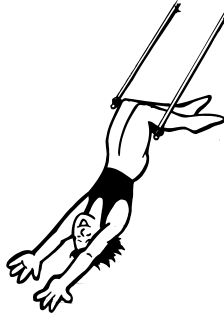

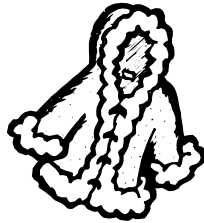

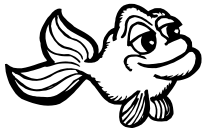

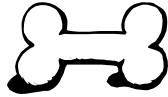

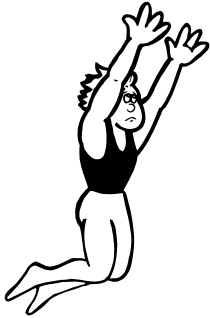

While others may leave you,
God never will;
When others stop hearing,
God listens still.

*Circle the things that make noise.
Underline the things that do not.*

God hears your words,
And God hears your heart,

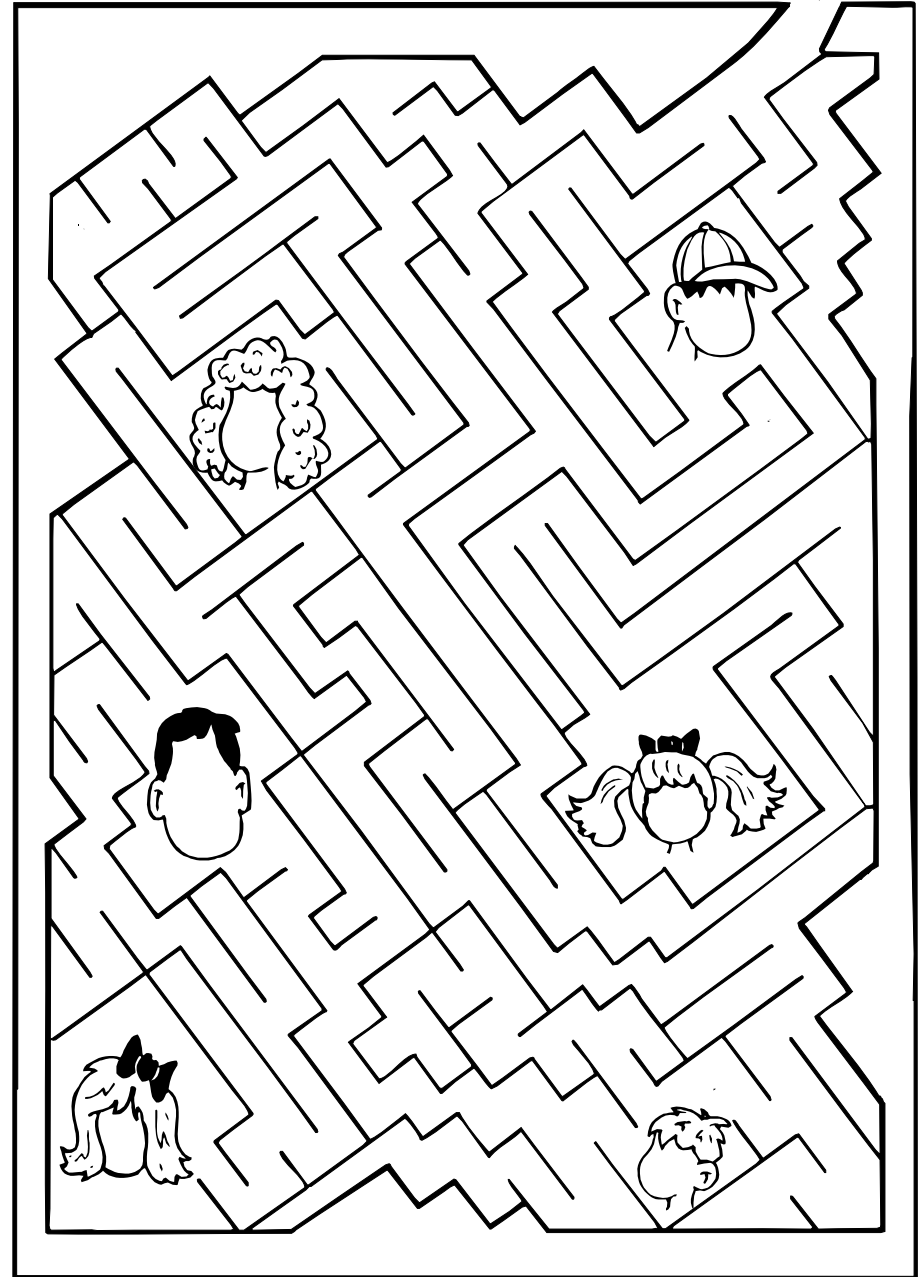

Match the answers to prayer
on the right with the ones who might be praying for them,
on the left.

But it's not all up to him,
You, too, have a part:

Use your heart, look and listen;
Use your ears, eyes, and brain

*These kids are listening for God's word.
Take it to each of them and give them smiles.*

For God speaks through people,
Books, whispers, and rain.
