1 Corinthians 15

Just as a seed, when it is mslal,

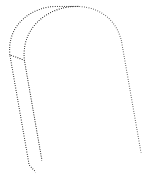

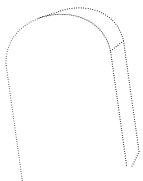

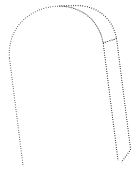

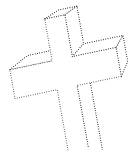

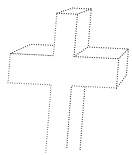

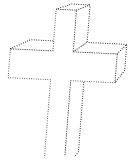

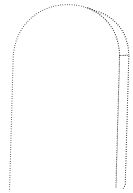

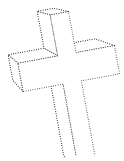

Unscramble the last words in the lines.

Can't imagine being strong and Ital,

After we die, we will live once omer,
And God will give us bodies
Much different than ebefro.

Draw people leaving their graves, no ghosts or ghouls, but people with the beautiful, new bodies God will give them.

The bodies we have will not live forever,
No matter how strong or brave we are,
Or clever;

But God, who loves us, has a Inpa:
That all who die will live gaina.

And just as oaks begin from little dssee,
We will have new bodies, better,
Stronger lovelier than these,
It's hard to imagine even if you yrt,
But these bodies won't get sick or old or tired;
. . . or ever dei.
