Luke 9:51-62

Jesus said, "Anyone who puts a hand to the plow and then looks back is not worthy of God's kingdom."

Plow this field with a line from beginning to end. Connect every dot without lifting your pencil, or crossing your line.

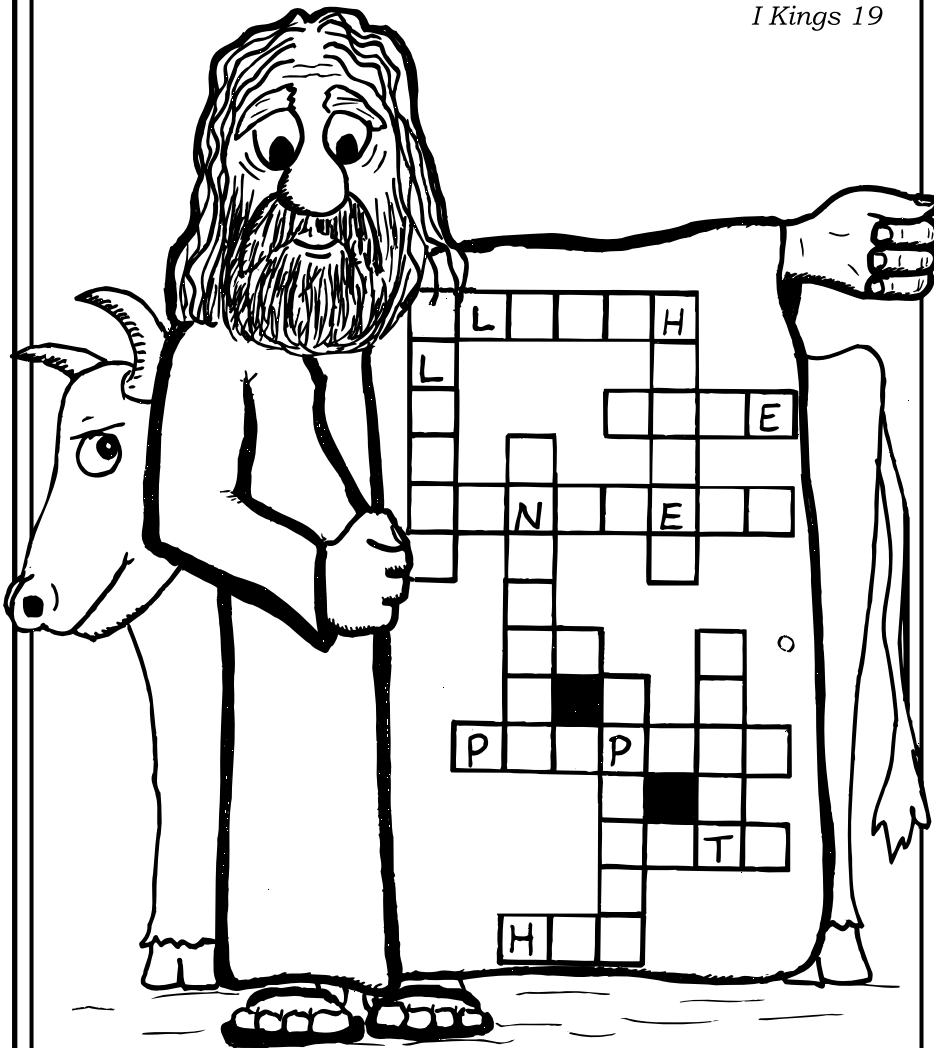

Think about this. What do you think Jesus meant? (A plow was a metal blade on a wood frame, pulled by oxen, guided by a worker. It was used to turn over the soil in a field, preparing it for planting.)

Elijah was a great prophet (a person who speaks and acts for God). He lived hundreds of years before Jesus. When God was ready to take him to heaven, Elijah chose another prophet to take his place.

He found Elisha plowing a field. Elijah threw his coat over Elisha's shoulders to show that he would be the next person chosen to speak for God.
