

"Jesus, now that I can see, I know just what to (do, run, sing);
I want to leave
My beggar's life;
I want to follow
(me, you, he)!"

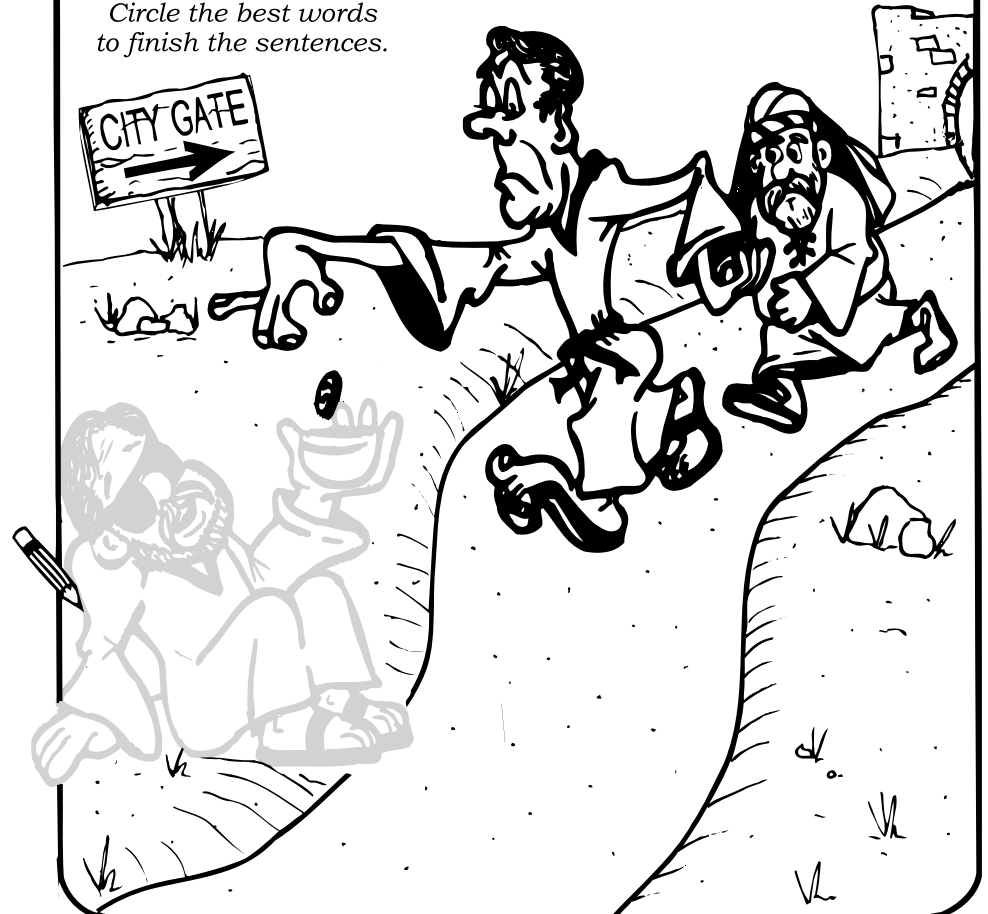

Little Kidsword

Mark 10:46-52

Day in and day out,
Bart was by the (tub, gate, cat);
His eyes were blind and so he sat
And begged for all he (sad, good, fell, ate).

Circle the best words
to finish the sentences.

"Here comes Jesus!" someone said
to Bart, who could not (go, see, call).
Bart jumped up and yelled and yelled
"Lord, I am blind! Help (me, baby, out!)!"

"Bart! Be quiet! Shhh!" they said,
But he yelled louder (dad, hat, still);
"Jesus, help me see again!
If you don't help, who (will, ball, up)?"

Jesus said, "Come over here,
I'll help you out, my (guy, friend, foot),
Your faith has brought your many years
Of darkness to an end."

As the light filled up his (cup, nose, eyes),
That once had been so dim,
Through a flood of tears he saw
His healer looking back at (me, him, pal!)"