God loves us and
Knows just what we need.
God says, "You should do
What I say:
Work hard, be busy,
but just for six,

*What does your family do to relax and have fun?
Draw a picture of your family doing this.*

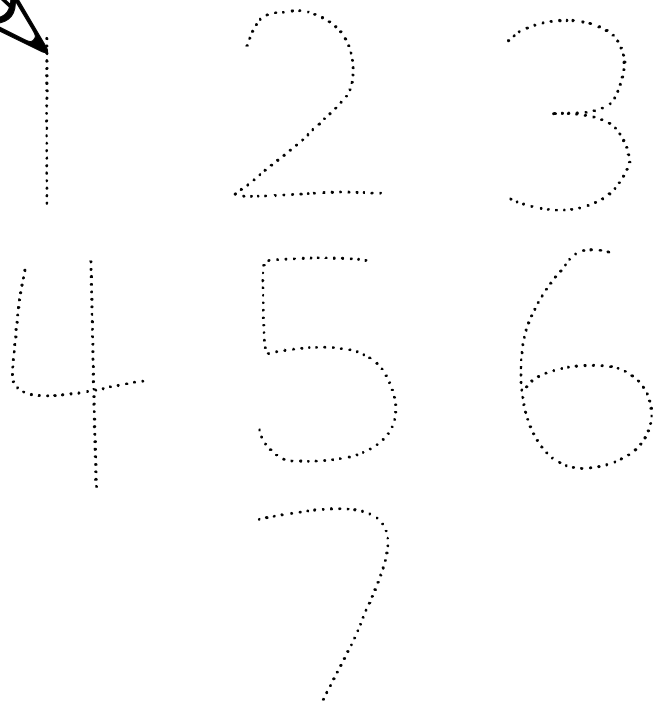

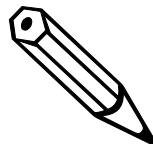

Then rest, really rest,
On the seventh day.

Little Kidsword

Mark 2:23-28

God made the stars,
And the world, ,
And people out of clay;

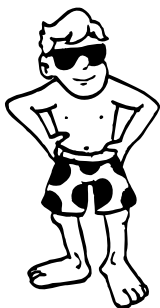

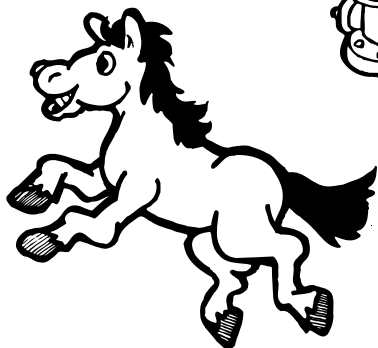

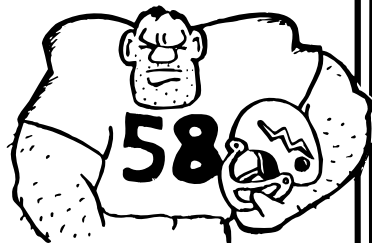

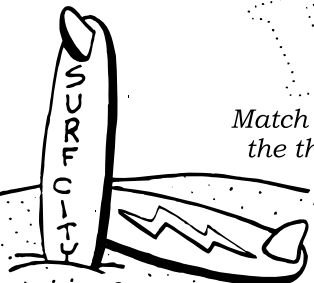

Then rested on the seventh day.

Note: We have not followed the readings for this Sunday due to their unsuitability. We have taken the Sabbath theme from the passage immediately following in the gospel.

God wants us to work hard and

PLAY

Match the workers and players with the things they work or play with.

And rest, really rest,
For just one day!

We need time to dream,
To think and to pray;

Match the animal with the place it might sleep.

And rest, really rest,
For one whole day!
