Mark 6; Eph 1

Ephesians is one of the letters from Paul in the New Testament. It was written, probably from prison, to the Christians in what we now call western Turkey.

These sentences from Ephesians are missing most of their words. You'll find them on the table.

and give the apostles faces.

Jesus gathered the apostles,
And he said to every (one, guy, laugh),
"It's time for you to try and do
The things that I have (eaten, fly done, sung).

So he divided them in twos,
And two-by-two he (shouted, gone, went, sent)
Them all across the land to heal,
And tell people to (run, hide, repent).

Take them
to each city,
in order.

So out they went with just their faith,
And they were amazed;
For as they shared the word of God,
They saw people healed and saved!
